Dear Commissioner,

Many thanks for your letter of December 10th advising me about the application of Community law on the Isle of Man. It was very helpful and I have passed on the information to concerned constituents.

However, my original letter also asked about customers of Landsbanki Guernsey, who have been affected by the collapse of Landsbanki Iceland and are offered very little protection under the national compensation scheme. You did not mention this in your response and I would appreciate information about whether there is scope for them to be compensated under EU law.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
