SUBJECT: (please specify) Travel times and loading densities for long distance animal transport
TEXT: In June 2005, during his address to the European Parliament's Intergroup on the Welfare and Conservation of Animals, Commissioner Kyprianou restated his commitment to revisiting the permitted travel times and loading densities for animals undergoing long distance transport. The Commission's recent communication to the European Parliament and the Council on a Community Action Plan on the Protection and Welfare of Animals, 2006-2010 makes no reference to this. Will the Commissioner please confirm that he will indeed revisit these issues during his term as Commissioner?
